Do you have a spouse¹ or common-law partner²? Yes () No ()

If no, you are not required to complete questions 1(b), 2(b), 3(b), 4(b) and 8(b).

In this document you are not required to provide any values of assets or liabilities or the amount of any income. These may, however, be relevant to your obligations under the Code and you may wish to discuss them confidentially with the Senate Ethics Officer.

² Under subsection 3(1) of the Code, “common-law partner” means a person who is cohabiting with a Senator in a conjugal relationship, having so cohabited for at least one year.

However, you are required to include the value of any contracts or other business arrangements you may have with the Government of Canada or any federal agency or body.

Please note that any disclosure of information concerning your family members would be to the best of your knowledge, information and belief that you are able to ascertain by making reasonable inquiries.

If you are unsure about how to report any information, you are encouraged to consult with the Senate Ethics Officer.
